

COURTNEY LAWRENCE DIED A HERO

We all remember him, we all remember how when he left we just knew that he would make good. We knew that whatever he would be called upon to do for his country he would do willingly and well.

And now he is dead—dead on the field of honor.

There is nothing that we can do for him now. We can only hope that we did our duty towards him while he lived.

And yet there is something that we can still do for him and for his memory.

We can do all in our power to see that those with whom he fought, his friends—our boys “over there”—are not lacking for anything that they need.

We can buy LIBERTY BONDS and thus show that we appreciate what our hero did when he laid down his life for you and for me.
